CHAMPIONS, 6; DETROIT, 3. Phillips Pitched Better Ball than

With Stewart back at second the champions were more like themselves again and they took the third game of the Detroit series yesterday very handily. They got away with a strong lead and the visitors were never dangerous. The first inning was semething approaching a reversal of that or the previous day, Fifield being hit hard after chances had been given to retire the side. Both he and Phillips pitched good ball, the Indianapolis man doing the better work, however. Stewart had plenty to do at second and it was fortunate that he resumed his old position. Buckley had little to do at third. His error was on slow grounder by Nicholson. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. LOGANSPORT, Ind., June 30 .- The ministers of this city have begun a systematic crusade for breaking up Sunday baseball in Logansport, Last Sunday the Rev. E. L. Semans, of the Broadway Methodist Church, and the Rev. D. P. Putnam, of the First Presbyterian Church, preached ser-mens aimed at the desecration of the Sabbath. Next Sunday union services will be gin at Broadway rink, and the meetings will be made the battle ground on which to down Sunday ball. The "fans" are already raising funds with which to defend their position, and consider themselves strongly fortified. There is a strong sentiment timent against the Sunday game, and the ministers depend on this for their backing.
